Creating a New World Part II

You are living during a cycle that the ancients referred to as the “Time of the Great Light” ~ a Light that is transforming everything and everyone so your Earth can align with more of her Divine Blueprint and humanity can move more gracefully into its new Golden Age of Freedom. This Great Light is being used to shift every atom into Unity Consciousness.

Saint Germain and Lady Portia:

The Earth is being rained upon by a huge shower of photon energy that comes into your galaxy every so many thousands of years. This rain of Light is assisting the Earth in shifting her frequencies so all life upon her can move into a zone of consciousness that is much more in harmony with the rest of the cosmos. To make this shift, the Earth is rebalancing and redefining her position in the heavens. This repositioning is already taking place due to shifts in the Sun's magnetic poles and since the Earth has such an intimate physical and etheric relationship with the Sun, she shares in all of these changes.

Everything and everyone is getting what might be seen as a massive “spinal” adjustment that will greatly shift how energy is being received through the body and through the planet. In other words, your north and south poles are shifting into a much more direct alignment with your Central Sun which is esoterically the Heart Center of your galaxy. As your planet adjusts to its new position, it will also be escalating its capacities to unify all of life with the Great Central Sun of your galaxy. This is all wonderful news as it is bringing every particle of life into more harmony with its pre-separation encoding as well as giving everyone a much more direct relationship with their heart in relationship to the galactic heart ~ as above, so below and so within all of life.

Visualize and breathe through your spine as if it were literally a powerful rod of light that is connecting you to all of life both vertically and spherically.

The spherical domain of your consciousness is intimately connected into the etheric bodies of all of life and supporting your initiation into Unity or Golden Age Consciousness so this can be fully realized as your natural estate of being. As you breathe, you may want to visualize your spherical field becoming one with the spherical Presence of your Earth so you can feel what it is like to abide within Her magnificence within the greater cosmos.

Since all of you have chosen to be here during this very important cycle of renewal and transformation, everything that is happening within and upon your Earth is equally occurring within you, meaning you are also moving into your greater body of light and that is shifting all of the physical and etheric components of your being. Your consciousness is reorganizing itself around your etheric body since it is sustaining your Divine Blueprint and since your etheric body is penetrating into every atom of your physical substance, no part of you is being left out of this transformation.

Your etheric body is vital in assisting your atomic structure to accept and align with its ascension encoding. This means that the Light within your body is being reorganized so it can re-member and re-awaken the previously dormant codes within your ancient DNA. During this process, every etheric Spiritual Center in your body is sending new sparks of information through your nervous system and into the glands of your body so they can start producing what is needed to maintain your radiant health and well being.

In essence everything and everyone is preparing for the ascension and although there are many in your galactic family who are already living in Unity Consciousness, what happens for one happens for all, so these beings are also expanding into more light according to their own Divine Blueprint. Many are coming forward from the Universal Councils of Light to assist those on Earth to come into more resonance with their galactic families.

Life will definitely appear differently as this process continues. Your nervous system is starting to connect you with your expanded senses and these connections will be making you more aware of the old matrix you are exiting and the new body of consciousness you are entering. The Light has to penetrate all the way through your etheric body to gain entrance into the whole of your physical body so every organ, cell, atom and molecule right down to the marrow in your bones can align with its Divine Blueprint.

Perhaps the most important thing is to shift your attention into your heart so completely that it becomes your authority and your mind becomes its servant. This allows you to return to your natural way of being, and it is then that a critical mass will be reached not only in your world, yet also within the cells of your body! As you make this shift every aspect of your being will start living in more enthusiasm and joy. The opportunities before you right now are profoundly precious and they will not come again!

To assist you in making this shift during this once in a lifetime “Time of the Great Light”, we have come forth from the spiritual realms with Courses to Walk the Earth as a Living Master and co-create a new Golden Age of Freedom.
