And the Children Shall Lead Them Part 2

Children are a direct link to Source as they have so recently come from the heavenly realms. You have only to look into a child's eyes to feel the depth of their connection to Source and to be a witness to the miracle they truly are. I come forth to encourage you to assist children in remembering their connection with their True Self, and for you to take the time to recognize each child for the immediate service they are providing just by being on Earth at this important time in the evolutionary journey of humanity. The children who are here now, and those that are still to come, are the spiritual wayshowers of their generation and the next. Bless them as they are blessing you and surround them in your love whenever possible so they can keep remembering that love is truly who they are. ~ Mother Mary

When you look into the eyes of children it is easy to see the eternal spark of the Divine that resides within each of them, and your heart knows in an instant that children hold the wisdom and the necessary keys for creating the new Golden Age. We encourage you to ask the children of all ages who are in your life what they would like to create to bring more love, more joy and more peace into the world during these pivotal times. When you are willing to look upon every child as an advanced soul, these questions become exciting—to you, to the children and to your own inner child.

The innocence and purity of children have allowed many of them to have the strands of their crystalline DNA activated or reactivated. This is assisting them to remember who they are, why they are here, and often where they came from before they arrived on Earth. Knowing this helps them to spiritually mature into more conscious emissaries of Source. What if children had no subconscious patterning to clear from their parents and ancestors; what if they knew who they were and why they are here on Earth during the present Shift in the Ages? What if that Shift is now well underway and these children are here to be a more active part of assisting humanity in moving through these times victoriously?

Some of the children on your Earth right now are spiritually awakened because they have never been on Earth before and they do not have limiting subconscious programming to overcome. Ask yourself what you can do to support these children who are here now to create new ways of living on Earth, new ways of relating to each other and new ways of living in a world where everyone is being supported?

Please stay focused and keep inspiring each other and the children with your unconditional love and support. The clearing of your emotional or feeling body, which is directly related to your inner child, is a vital link in keeping you connected with your capacity to create and sustain love and true intimacy within your relationships. The inner child has an indivisible connection with the Divine Feminine aspect of your Presence and it is this feminine component of every soul that is the doorway to the heart. All children need to be encouraged to keep this door open because so often it starts closing after they get to Earth.

As the children remember their Divine inheritance and that they are here to co-create a new Golden Age, they will be much less inclined to get so easily distracted. They will learn sooner, rather than later, that they have a great purpose in being here during your present Shift in the Ages. Every adult is being invited to help in keeping the door to the heart so wide open that there is no question in the hearts of the children or the inner child of the adults, about where they came from or why they are here on Earth specifically during these magnificent times.

We are encouraging everyone who knows in their heart that they are here to create the foundations for living in Unity or Golden Age consciousness to become an active part of facilitating the Golden Age Children Course that has been created for parents, teachers and all those who want to present new ways of being to children, which will awaken their awareness that lasting freedom and joy springs from their natural desire to love unconditionally, and that love includes being responsible for their thoughts, feelings and actions. When children know who they are and why they are here, then they naturally become the wayshowers of the next generation.
