Living in Paradise

Part I

Your Presence, co-joined with others, has the love, wisdom and power to shift the course of your world from doom and gloom to a new Golden Age.

Sanat Kumara and Lady Venus

The Presence, as the eternal Self, lives outside of all the temporary thoughts and feelings that are continually circulating in the minds and hearts of humanity. As you awaken within the unlimited consciousness of your Presence, you start moving outside of the limited views of the collective and into the unlimited potential that exists even in your 3rd dimension. Multidimensional awareness allows you to experience the gloriousness of life on every dimension and to know that your Presence is living in Paradise right now.

Each and every breath that you breathe is a magnificent opportunity to simply remember that you are connected to all of life because all of life is literally held together by the same Divine love. The Oneness you have been seeking is your true and natural state of being. Yet every dimension is created by the collective thoughts and feelings of those who are living there, and your support of those thoughts and feelings is what is holding your world together and only you can change it.

The Love that you share with all of life is inviting you to create a new world. You are being called by us within the Councils of Shamballa and by your own Presence to cease creating and accepting any thoughts or conditions aimed at breeding fear and separation within the mental and emotional bodies of humanity. Your Presence, co-joined with others, has the love, the wisdom and the power to shift the course of your world from doom and gloom to a new Golden Age. We suggest you start now and not stop until you see it manifested.

Living on Earth, especially during these times, is presenting you with a magnificent opportunity to fully embody the consciousness of your Presence. The foundation of a Golden Age civilization is always built upon a certain percentage of you fully remembering and accepting that you have no eternal reality outside of Source Love and Light. We are calling you to awaken and to consciously embody your Presence so you can walk your mastery and be a rememberer. When there is full acceptance of your Presence within your mind, heart and body, then all separation myths, patterns and beliefs that have created duality can then be left behind in the dust of your previous age.

As you continue to pass through this great Shift of the Ages, remember that the Paradise frequencies of your new Golden Age are already encoded in your heart.

These frequencies are also encoded as the true resonance of your glorious Earth. Keep shifting your mind out of any undue fascination it may have with the conditional, material world. In releasing your attention from these temporary illusions, your heart, mind and body will be free to enjoy deeper levels of intimacy with all of life and with nature, which is such a magnificent display of paradise on your Earth. Nature is also calling you deeper into your remembrance of living in Oneness.

When there is no past or future, only now, then each moment can embrace you within the pure joy of simply being alive and present. We within the Councils of Shamballa have lived in the paradise frequency or Unity Consciousness for thousands of years and we know that being present is the key to your liberation. When you allow all thoughts and feelings to simply pass through you, it will release your mind from feeling that it has to resist, react or defend whatever is going on within or around you.

Your great journey through what appears to be time and space is just one moment unfolding within your consciousness. The past and the future exist solely in memory or projection and solely in accordance with the power you give them to affect your life in the present. We know that in your dimension, time seems relevant, yet ultimately it will simply be seen as a binding concept whose demise is eminent. As you practice living in the omni-present Presence, everything will unfold without anyone having to control the magnificence of the moment.

Life itself becomes Paradise when it is not being manipulated by the mind.
